The new Claſs of Knights of the Order of the Seraphim, lately created here, is not to exceed Three in Number. They are to have the Inſpection and entire Management of the Hoſpitals, and in ſome Manner to act as Deputies of the Order, to whom the Superintendency of all the charitable Foundations belongs. Count Bunge, whom the King had deſigned to be one of the Knights of this new Claſs, has ſince, on Account of his Age, declined that Honour, and Count Duben has been named in his Room.
